

Business Intelligence

Business Intelligence (BI) is a set of processes and technologies that enable an organization to analyze data and generate meaningful information. BI systems help businesses make data-driven decisions, improve operational efficiency, and gain a competitive edge in the market.